ANGELICA
CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Ever since my God brother did his exchange in Beijing during the 2008 Summer Olympics I’ve dreamed of having an adventure like his during uni. I finally mustered up the courage to ‘go big or go home’ and apply. I was ecstatic to find out that I was accepted to do my exchange with Western Sydney University. Through Western Sydney University I saw all the beauty Australia had to offer plus career opportunities like working for the student campus council, volunteering with First Foot Forward and even promoting studying abroad with the international office. Don’t be like everyone else, stand out by studying abroad!
