Information about the campuses

La Trobe University’s largest campus - Melbourne (Bundoora) is located 14km from the Central Business District of Melbourne. Melbourne is often referred to as Australia’s cultural and sport capital and was voted the world’s most liveable city in 2012 and 2013, based on its cultural attributes, climate, cost of living, and social conditions such as crime rates and health care.

La Trobe University has seven campuses with our second largest campus in the beautiful regional town of Bendigo.

More information about campuses can be found on the following website:
